FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Strategic Global Income Fund, Inc. announces final liquidating distribution

Strategic Global Income Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") (formerly traded on the NYSE under the symbol "SGL") today announced the payment of a final liquidating distribution to shareholders. Shareholders of record as of May 18, 2016, with shares held in "book entry" form (that is, without physical share certificates) began receiving a final distribution of $9.0767 per share on May 25, 2016; beneficial shareholders holding through broker-dealers should receive their final distribution as a credit to their financial intermediary accounts (for example, a brokerage account) on or about May 26, 2016. Certain other shareholders with "book entry" shares will receive their final liquidating distribution in the form of a check via the mail.

Fund shareholders who own share certificates should receive a letter of transmittal (or exchange form) from the Fund's paying agent and are asked to complete the letter (or exchange form) and return it with such share certificates to the paying agent (not the Fund) to receive their payment.

The Fund expresses its appreciation to those shareholders who supported the Fund and its Board over the years.
